- 1) The President declared the Meeting open at 8:00pm and remarked that it was wonderful to see the Members in person after several months of Zoom Meetings. There being no new Members to greet the Meeting proceeded to the Drawing of Lots supervised by Mr Proctor
- 2) Mr Braitwaite was first out with No 2. The books were then stacked, recorded and returned to the boxes. Nine books were loaned.
- 3) The Club was collected (3p per Member) and Mr Dawes was fined 10p for not returning two books.
- 4) Mr Phillips having got married during the Covid lockdown, bought the Members present a round of drinks and was thanked and toasted by Mr Dawes, his father-in-law.
- 5) The Members then enjoyed an excellent pie 'n' pea supper with cake and cheese to follow all organised by our host and Entertainment Secretary, Mr Moore.
- 6) Club Business : Mr Moore reported that he has provisionally booked The Bow Cow for the Ladies' Dinner in November. He requires firm numbers by the September Meeting. The Menu is apparently available online. The President asked for the Meeting's permission to invite the widows of late Members. This was endorsed by the Members. The Secretary to arrange.

7) The Treasurer, Mr. Oliver, announced that, 'just this once, the Club funds would be used to pay for the supper. But he did not want to set a precedent. He went on to thank Members who had paid their Annual Subscriptions and to remind the Secretary that he had not.

8) M. Brathwaite asked that the Secretary be thanked for arranging the online Meetings which had ensured unbroken continuity of Meetings Minutes

9) There being no other business the President announced that the next Meeting will be on August 11th 2014 and he declared the Meeting closed at 9:16 pm.
