

DALTON BOOK CLUB
MARCH 2020 MEETING
via Skype

APOLOGIES : BILL JONES, WILF PROCTOR

PRESENT : JOHN DAWES, MICHAEL ROSS, ALASTAIR DAVIDSON, KEITH JOHNSON, DAVID OLLIVER, WILL PHILLIPS,
BERNARD UGOMOTSO

- 1) The Meeting was called to order at 7:53pm
- 2) The President welcomed the Members to the first Meeting held by video-link after over 250 years
- 3) It was agreed that there would be no tickets drawn and Members could keep the same books they had as last time.
- 4) The books were stacked and recorded and balanced.
- 5) There was no Club Fee and all fines were waived this time
- 6) There being no drinks to pay for there was no Whip. The Members poured their own drinks following the President
- 7) The President showed the Members a book he had obtained from past Member Mr Robinson. He also established that book 972, which he had found on a shelf, had been purchased by him in 2017
- 8) The President read out a short résumé from potential Member Nathan Pike. "Married, three kids, comes from Devon, started out in Clean Teas, now a process engineer" Mr Ugomotso confirmed, "He's a nice bloke, exactly the kind we need in the Club." After some discussion it was decided to postpone a vote on Mr Pike.
- 9) The President enquired if Members had any suggestions for the Ladies' Night Dinner in November, second Wednesday.
- 10) There was no other business.
- 11) The next Meeting will be on 22 April.
- 12) Mr Olliver wished the two invalids (Mr Johnson + Mr Davidson) a speedy recovery.
- 13) The President closed the Meeting at 8:07pm.