

DALTON BOOK CLUB

APRIL 2021 MEETING

via Zoom

- 1) APOLOGIES : BILL JONES, WILL PHILLIPS, ADRIAN MOORE, BERNARD UGOMOTSO, NICK PERIE (POST FACTO)
- 2) PRESENT : ALASTAIR DAVIDSON, MICHAEL ROSS, WILF PROCTOR, DAVID OLLIVER, HARRY MILLER, JOHN IMLACH, JOHN DAWES, KEITH JOHNSON
- 3) The President declared the Meeting open at 8:02 pm
- 4) Mr Davidson asked Members to take a few moments to remember Honorary Member Bill Lawson who died this week. Mr Miller, who knew Mr Lawson best of those Members present and Mr Olliver both spoke of what a generous person he was and a good friend of the Book Club. John Dawes found out about his funeral arrangements. The Secretary to send a card.
- 5) The Meeting moved swiftly to Club Business.
- 6) Mr Davidson proposed that the next Meeting in May be held at The White Horse Inn in Dalton, assuming Covid regulations are relaxed on schedule. Carried unanimously
- 7) Mr Dawes made his apologies for the next Meeting as he is due to be on holiday.
- 8) It was agreed to ask the Entertainment Secretary, Mr Moore if a Pie & Pea supper could be arranged for the A.G.M on Wednesday June 23rd.
- 9) It was decided that the Club should aim to hold a Ladies' Night Dinner in November as customary. A number of venues were proposed and it was suggested that Mr Moore be charged with making enquiries after the June Meeting.
- 10) Under any other business, congratulations were offered to Barrow AFC for avoiding relegation from their league. Mr Dawes again tried to interest Members of the Club in books he is reading including "The Prisoner in the Mask" by Daisy Wheatley. The next Meeting will be on May 26th
- 11) The President closed the Meeting at 8:22 pm.