MAY 2021 MEETING

Via Zoom

- 1) Apologies: Bill Jones, John Dawes
- 2) Present: Alastair Davidson, Michael Ross, David Oliver, Wilf Proctor, John Ingham, Marky Miller, Keith Johnson
- 3) The President opened the Meeting at 20:01

4) As the Meeting was being held over Zoom once again the President swiftly dealt with items here to there on the vining-order

5) The Meeting moved on to "Club Buyers". A hope was expressed that the eading of Covid Regulations would mean that the June A.G.M and Meeting could be held at the White Horse Inn and it was proposed that a P&A Res supper be arranged with our chairwoman Secretary. The next item was a discussion about the proposed November 1st Ladies Night Dinner. Venus suggested in turn were: The Duke of Edinburgh, The Village Inn, Dunes, The Fishermans at Baycliffe and The Brown Cow in Dalhousie.

There was a late entrant of the Old Mill proposed by M. Inack. After canvassing the Members present it was agreed that we would aim for The Brown Cow, with The Old Mill in reserve. The Secretary to talk to M. Moore about making enquiries.

7) The Secretary raised the issue of the capacity of the book boxes and the backlog of magazines still to be added. It was agreed to hold a book sale at the first opportunity. Mr Proctor suggested an early start to a Meeting to facilitate a sale. Mr Davidson suggested a quick sale. The Treasurer informed Members that the Annual Accounts would be available shortly. The Secretary to circulate them to the Members by email.
