BERNARD UGOMTISO

PRESENT: ALASTAIR DAVIDSON, MICHAEL ROSS, DAVID OLLIVER, WILF
PROCTOR, HARRY MILLER, TERRY BRATHWAITE, JOHN DAWES
JOHN IMLACH, ADRIAN MOORE

- 1) The President declared the Meeting open at 8:02pm and welcomed the Members
- 2) There being no new Members to introduce the Meeting proceeded to the drawing of lots to choose books. Mr Proctor was first out with No 2. Nine books were chosen.
- 3) The books were stacked, recorded, balanced and returned to the chests
- 4) The Club Fees were collected and the Whip was set at £2. The Drinks order was taken (£21:80). Mr Dawes was fined 10p for drinking early. Mr Olliver was fined 10p for being late putting his book on the table
- 5) Mr Moore reiterated that he would like numbers for the November Ladies' Night Dinner by the September Meeting and ideally the Menu choices also.
- 6) Under A.O.B. Mr Miller told the Meeting that he had been contacted by Ron Creeer about a book he is intending to write about Dalton. After some discussion it was decided that Mr Miller and Mr Imlach, as members of the Local History Society would try to contact Mr Creeer and invite him to address a future Meeting.
- 7) To tackle the excess of books in the boxes Mr Dawes proposed that we attempt to sell 10 books at each Meeting. Mr Olliver agreed to terminate the current Magazine Subscriptions to help also.
- 8) The next Meeting will be on September 22nd. Meeting Closed at 9:14pm.
