

The Dalton Book Club Annual General Meeting 2023

As the newest Member it fell to M. Hall to propose that the Club be reformed for another year.

The Secretary read his annual report (see previous pages)
The Treasurer read his report and assured Members that the Club's finances were sound.

The Social Secretary (M. Moore) reported that two dinners were enjoyed by Members in the previous year and he was currently organising the November Ladies' Night Dinner, henceforth to be referred to as the Partners Dinner.

The President thanked the Club Officers for their service over the past 12 months. All the Officers agreed to continue in post. Carried unopposed.

M. Johnson was confirmed as Book Buyer unanimously.

The President enquired as to whether the Rules specified that Meetings must start at 8:00pm. He requested that Members should consider the possibility that Meetings could start at 7:30pm. M. Olliver asked if 7:45 could also be considered. A vote to be taken in July.

The Secretary was asked to print the Rules for distribution to the Members.

The President thanked the Members for their attendance and closed the Meeting at 9:12pm.
