

DALTON BOOK CLUB
THE HORSE AND JOCKET - 28/8/24

APOLOGIES: Leah Bentley, James Schofield.

THOSE PRESENT: Dana Oliver, W. F. Proctor, John Imlach, Keith Johnson
W. M. Phillips, Adrian Moore, John Dawes, Michael Ross
David Armstrong

- 1) The meeting opened at 8pm and the President welcomed the members. ~~There~~ The box was taken round and Mr Dawes was first out of the draw with number 4. Unusually, number 30 was drawn by Mr Proctor. 11 books loaned. The Club was collected. The whip was agreed at £3.00.
- 2) Club business: Thanks to Mr Moore for organising the recent summer meal - mixed reviews on the food. A vote was taken to continue with an August dinner in future; This was carried unanimously. Discussions around 13th November Ladies night Consideration given to the Village Inn and the General Burgoyne. Mr Moore investigated the Village Inn. A decision was taken to hold the annual Simpson dinner in March instead of February. Mr Ross reported that he had visited the Dalton Bookshop which had recently opened. The book buyer said he would make a point of purchasing a book there. Mr Johnson reported that he had advised Mr Penie that his membership had terminated. Mr Penie wished the club all the best. The secretary will write to Mr Hailey to advise him that his membership has lapsed.
- 3) Date of the next meeting 25th September.
- 4) Meeting closed at 8.53 pm.