

DALTON BOOK CLUB
THE HORSE AND JOCKEY

27/11/24

PRESENT
~~MEMBERS~~

D. OLIVER, D. ARMSTRONG, A. MOORE, M. ROSS, W. PROCTOR
J. DAVES, K. JOHNSON

APPOLOGIES: J. Inlach, L Bentley, J Schofield, A Davidson
& Atassi. W Phillips.

- 1) The meeting was opened at 8.00pm. The draw was taken and MR Moore was given first choice. 7 books were borrowed by members. MR Daves drank after the gavel was struck and was fined 20 pence. MR Moore was fined 10p for late book return and MR Proctor was fined 5p for the same offence.
- 2) At the first book raffle, £3.50 was collected.
- 3) The whip was set at £2.50 MR Johnson was fined 10p for drinking before the President had raised his glass. MR Johnson said he had been distracted by a discussion on E-Readers but this mitigation was not accepted.
- 4) Club business. Thanks to MR Moore for arranging the November dinner. The President proposed that the December evening on 11th would include Pork Pies, Cheese & Biscuits, cake etc. Passed unanimously. There was a significant discussion regarding the concept of pies and pastry.
- 5) There being no further business the meeting closed at 9.01 pm.
- 6) Next meeting was December 11th at the White Horse (No books at this meeting.)