1) The meeting was opened at 8.00pm. The President welcomed those attending and commented on the good level of attendance. The first number was drawn by Mr Schofield, Mr Johnson drew number 30 - (An unusual occurrence!) 12 books were borrowed which is the highest total borrowed since September 2019.

2) The ship was set at £3.00.

3) The book raffle was held raising £6.50.

4) Club business; Dinner - Mr Moore reminded the members that he was still looking for recommendations for a summer meal. The meal in Wiverton was suggested by the President. The group may look at Aug 6th/7th. The Bengal Rose was considered and a vote was taken, the meal being the preferred option. Mr Moore will look to organise matters. The President reported that Mr Paul Salvem of the Kents Bank Railway Station Library had offered to speak and donate a book. Mr Salvem will speak at the Christmas meeting. Mr Olliver indicated he would like to stand down as treasurer at some point. This to be discussed at the AGM. Mr Schofield has indicated a willingness to step in. The President is also going to compose a press release regarding increasing membership.

5) Next meeting will be 25th June at the White Horse

6) Meeting closed at 9.19.
